

Giatec will present its latest technologies for the non-destructive testing of concrete materials in the upcoming exhibition at the ACI Fall 2012 convention to be held in Toronto, Canada, October 21 to 25. Please come and visit our booth for a demonstration of RCON™ and iCOR® - advanced devices for the durability-based quality control of concrete and accurate condition assessment of reinforced concrete structures. For more information, please click here.