

We are pleased to announce that CFU International located in Ankara Turkey, is now distributing Giatec devices within their region. The company has more than 25 years of experience providing equipment to government agencies, laboratories and large projects, as well as, providing complete consultancy services. The company operates in regions across Central Asia, Middle East and North Africa, in addition to their country of Turkey. To learn more about the company and/or get in contact with them, click here to view their website.