

Giaterc specializes in developing user friendly sensors to non-destructively test concrete. Report mentions that RCON2™ is currently being employed by Ottawa's Storm Internet Services on a project to expand their 45-tower building.